Non-remittance of kists and penalty.

175. Mr. Ouseph P. Kundukulam.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) how many bidders of toddy, arrack and tobacco shops in the Chittilapilli Range had remitted their respective Kanni kists before 20th Kanni 1105; and how many such shops had been reauctioned for non-remittance before 20th Kanni 1105;

(b) what is the rate of penalty imposed on the defaulter in case he remits the kist, and if there is no fixed rate, on what lawful grounds the penalty is enforced?

Mr. T. V. Ramalinga Ayyar.—(a) 1st part. 3, 4 and 19. 2nd part. The remaining shops were put up to reauction for default of Kanni kist. Of these 3 arrack and two tobacco shops alone were resold.

(b) In the case of shops which are not knocked down at the resales, the licensees thereof are allowed to remit the kist with interest at 6% per annum on their presenting a petition duly stamped before the Tahsildar. In the case of shops resold, a solatium which is generally fixed at 3% of the resale amount is ordered to be given to the resale purchaser as a condition precedent to the shop being restored to the original licensee. For this also they should present a stamped petition before the Superintendent.
